

Lesson Plan

Name of faculty: Sonika

Discipline: Architecture Assistantship

Semester: 3rd

Subject: History of Architecture

Duration: 30 July to 23 November 2026

Work Load per Week: 4 Hrs per week

Week	Unit	Topic
1 st	Unit-1: Pre Historical Architecture and Introduction to History of Architecture	Importance of history to understand the Architecture.
2 nd	Unit-1: Pre Historical Architecture and Introduction to History of Architecture	Examples of Early shelters, Stone Age, Tumuli, etc. as expression of man's physical and spiritual needs
3 rd	Unit-1: Pre Historical Architecture and Introduction to History of Architecture	Determinants of built form – geo physical, societal, technological etc. (Earlycaves, timber huts, stone houses etc).
4 th	Unit-2: Western Civilization	Egyptian Civilization Concept of the Royal Necropolis, locational context and architectural characteristics of public buildings
5 th	Sessional-I	Sessional-I
6 th	Unit-2: Western Civilization	Mastabas (master of sakara) and pyramids (rock – cut and structural) – one example of each type to be chosen.
7 th	Unit-2: Western Civilization	Mesopotamian Civilization the urban context and architecture of public buildings (Ziggurats) - one example.
8 th	Unit-3: Greek and Roman Civilizations	Greek Civilization
9 th	Unit-3: Greek and Roman Civilizations	Roman Civilization
10 th	Sessional-II	Sessional-II
11 th	Unit-4: Indian Civilization and Buddhist Architecture in India	Indus Valley Civilization: Form of the Harappan city, location and role of public buildings.
12 th	Unit-4: Indian Civilization and Buddhist Architecture in India	The Vedic Village, building typology and construction, Buddhist Architecture in India
13 th	Unit-5: Temple Architecture in India	Evolution of temple and its various parts, Dravidian style
14 th	Unit-5: Temple Architecture in India	Indo Aryan Temple (North Indian), Jain

		temples in India
15 th	Sessional- III	Sessional- III